As a thilling exhibition of the national pastine the thrills were not lacking, for the Climbers came from behind in the last half of the ninth and pushed over two runs, knotting the count, thanks to Morgan and Cashion for clean singles and to relief hurler Jim Scott for a couple of walks with the bases loaded.

Griff sent Joe Boehling to the slab, and the Richmond Thunderbolt demonstrated that with four days' rest he could come back and pitch good ball. Boebling worked nine innings, and but for wretched support would not have allowed a run.

Defeat Charged to Groom.

As a pinch hitter was ordered up in the Climbers' ninth. Bob Groom assumed command in the tenth, and unfortunately the defeat must be laid at Groom's door, as the Sox accred the winning counters off Sir Robert's delivers, who has seldom butted into a box score this season, was it buggest kind of a puzzle to our side, allowing but five scattered hits in eight innings. The pace began to tell on him during the ninth, and with the bases full and nobody out. Calinham yanked Benr and substituted "Death Valley" Jun Scott. Griff made a shift in his line-up, sending Carl Cashion to right field, as Carl is a bitter of renown, and the Old Fox needs all the batting strength he can misster these days. The Carolina curver caught one fly ball and unloaded a safe hit after three trials.

The Sox soured in the first inning, when Chappell lifted a Texas leaguer to left. Berger bunted, and Boehling's throw to McBride was perfect. Capt. George muffed the ball, and everybody was safe. Lord dumped a roller at Foster, who threw high to Morgan, covering first base, with the result that all hands were safe. Chase fifed to Milan, scoring Chappell, and Collins hit into a double play.

During the first four innings Benz did not allow the Nationals a safe hit. He walked three men. one of whom stole, but there was nothing doing in the run line.

Five left-handed pitchers in the major-leagues lost their games yesterday—Marquard. Rucker, and Salike going down to defeat in the National, while Plank and Collins were being beaten in the American. Russell pitched a fraction more than bne inning for the Chicago Americans and gets credit for a victory, being the only lucky southpaw in either league. Boshing, of the Nationals, was neither winner nor loser, being relieved in the tenth inning with the score tied. "Rube" Marquard's winning streak was a broken by the Pittsburgh Nationals after the New York star bad attained nine straight victories.
